

Receive text messages throughout the day alerting you on the markets of your choice. You decide which contracts you wish to follow (grains, livestock, energies, financials, etc), and which times of the day you'd like to receive updates. This is a great service for those who want to stay updated on prices but are away from the computer or the radio!

Diversified Services

Market Call

Receive a daily recorded call from Diversified Services' Rich Morrison around 10:00 each morning with an update on the key grain and "outside" markets. And if you're too busy to listen at that time, we can set up the call to go to your voice mail for your review at a more convenient time.

Third Thursday Marketing Meeting

Join us at 9:00 am on the third Thursday of each month for our online webinar, where Rich Morrison will discuss current market conditions, including the recent USDA Supply/Demand Report and futures technicals, marketing strategies to consider, government programs such as ACRE, and revenue insurance. And you can ask questions throughout the webinar. And if you can't make it to a location to watch the webinar live, we will record it and email the link that evening.
